

SUPPORT FOR THE FIRST STEP ACT

The First Step Act was negotiated alongside police organizations to ensure criminal justice reform would not come at the expense of public safety. The focus on efficiently using taxpayer dollars, uplifting our police force, and rehabilitating prisoners – issues of money and morals – the First Step Act has garnered the support of several conservative and police organizations.

LAW ENFORCEMENT ORGANIZATIONS THAT ENDORSED THE FIRST STEP ACT

- International Association of Chiefs of Police
- Fraternal Order of Police
- National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives
- National District Attorneys Association
- Association of State Correctional Administrators
- American Federation of Government Employees
- AFGE Bureau of Prisons Locals Council

CONSERVATIVE ORGANIZATIONS THAT ENDORSED THE FIRST STEP ACT

- Aleph Institute
- American Conservative Union
- American Correctional Association
- American Legislative Exchange
- American Target Advertising
- Americans for Prosperity
- Americans for Tax Reform
- Association for Prosecuting Attorneys
- Business Roundtable
- Charles Koch Institute
- Christian Community Development
- Commonwealth Foundation
- Concerned Women for America
- Correctional Ministries and Chaplains Association
- Council for Christian Colleges and Universities
- Council for National Policy
- Due Process Institute
- Faith & Freedom Coalition
- FreedomWorks
- Florida Tax Watch, Inc.
- Freedom Partners
- Fund for American Studies
- Generation Opportunity
- Heritage Action
- Heritage Foundation
- Institute for Prison Ministries
- James Madison Institute
- Koch Industries
- Louisiana Family Forum
- Media Research Center
- National Association of Evangelicals
- National Governors Association
- National Center for the Neighborhood Enterprise
- National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference
- Prison Fellowship
- R Street Institute
- Right on Crime
- Rio Grande Foundation
- Texas Public Policy Foundation
- The Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention
- The Fund for American Studies
- The Libre Initiative